Welcome to the Global Air Training (GAT) News Letter, which offers a brief update on GAT training and activities this summer.

Global Air Training News

Happy Birthday ! Global Air Training celebrated it's 12th birthday in April. Thank you to all of our clients and team for your help and support. Here's to the next 12 years!

GAT Team News

Congratulations to Martin

GAT instructor Martin Evans gained his CRMIE accreditation this month. Both Di and Martin are now able to offer assessments for CRMI accreditation, if you would like further information please contact us.

Welcome to James McBride

James has joined the team as a freelance trainer. James has been flying Boeings since 1989 and has over 12,000 flying hours. He is a TRI/TRE on the B767 and flies for Flyglobespan.

Previously, during 7 years with Easyjet, James was one of the onscreen characters for the TV series 'Airline' and is often recognized in the industry by younger pilots who watched the series as teenagers in the years 1999 to 2001. James writes a regular monthly column for Flight Training News, 'From the Flightdeck' he is passionately committed to working towards improving flight safety through training and has recently gained CRMI(g) accreditation with GAT.

Race for Life

Once again Global Air Training will be supporting the Race for Life cancer research charity event on 14 June in Chester. Di is busy running the local lanes and getting on track to beat her personal best time.

GAT is also sponsoring the 'Newcomers' event at the Bolesworth Show Jumping Classic, one of the best fixtures on the equestrian calendar which takes place 10-12 July. The event raises money for the Catwalk Trust & Imagine Appeal charities.

GAT New Courses

CRMI Refresher— our new course has been very well received. The 3 day course is available to delegates who have previously attended our 5 day CRMI Instructor course and is designed to refresh skills, offering a range of new material for use in CRM ground training. The course package includes the latest updated CRM instructor manual and training materials.

Disruptive Pax—Andy has delivered a course for Bolton University, applying his knowledge and experience of Dis Pax training, helping them to deal with difficult and aggressive clients.
